PORT KEMBLA SAILING CLUB
("Club")

Notice to Participants ("Notice")

1. Your participation in Yachting and other events ("Club Events") officially or unofficially, held by the Club is at your own risk. The Club takes no responsibility for your safety or health during any Club Event in which you participate.
2. By participating in any Club Event you agree to the conditions in this Notice and waive all claims and demands whatsoever of any action you may have against the Club, its committees, officers, officials, organisers and members in relation to any injury, loss or damage suffered as a consequence of your participation in any of the Club Events.
3. You should be in reasonable health, have a reasonable level of fitness and be a competent swimmer in order to participate in any on water Club Event. Any person suffering medical conditions should consult his/her medical adviser and follow their advice about participating before participating in any Club Event. Any person under the influence of alcohol or affected by any other deleterious substance must not participate in any Club Event. The wearing of a Personal Floatation Device is recommended when participating in on water Club Events.
4. No Medical assistance, emergency assistance, first aid or other facilities are present or available to Participants in Club Events.
5. Participants should be aware that participation in the sport of yachting exposes Participants to many inherent risks as a result of which personal injury (and sometimes death) can and does occur.
6. Sea and wind conditions may be hazardous; exposing Participants to injury (or death) and include drowning, hypothermia, loss of fingers and limbs, head and spinal injuries, broken bones, cuts, abrasions, sunburn and rope burns.
- 7 Personal floatation devices (lifejackets) can be an encumbrance and a potential safety risk when racing small sail craft, and a condition of entry in this regatta will require the wearing of Australian Standard approved personal floatation devices by all participants.
8. Participants must take care especially when in the vicinity of or when rounding buoys during Club Events and at all times take reasonable care to avoid injuring other Participants. Nevertheless Participants should be aware that collisions between boats can and do occur during Club Events.
9. Club events are intended to be good fun, promote wellbeing and comradeship. Participants should enjoy themselves but not at the expense of other participants in club events and should at all times observe the ISAF Racing Rules, the International Rules for Prevention of Collisions at Sea, the Sailing Instructions and display good sportsmanship in order to promote the sport of Yachting.
10. Each participating boat shall be insured with valid third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of $10 million per event or the equivalent.
